Medicaid Financing And Expenditures
The Medicaid program is jointly funded by the federal government and states. The federal government pays states for a specified percentage of program expenditures, called the Federal Medical Assistance Percentage (FMAP) . States must ensure they can fund their share of Medicaid expenditures for the care and services available under their state plan.

Increase public spending on health sector to 2.5% of GDP ...

Health New England announced today a new diabetes program, taking effect January 1, 2021, that is aimed at improving health outcomes and lowering costs for its commercial members with diabetes.

According to the CDC, over 10% of the U.S. population has diabetes, and having it can lead to increased medical costs, lost work and wages.
