~~Maurizio Lazzarato, The Making of Indebted Man | CSCP / SCPC~~

The making of indebted man, therefore, is the descent of the human species into debt.

Following an extended period in which organized labour has lost a great deal of its ability to politicize the exploitation of labour-power, the banking collapse has made debt a conspicuous political issue.

~~Maurizio Lazzarato~~ Indebted Man: An Essay on the Neoliberal Condition argues that the debtor/creditor relationship is the fundamental social relation under neoliberalism, and that class struggle today primarily plays itself out through this dichotomy. Hence, he attempts to decentre the worker/owner division in order to privilege the importance of debt as the driving force of contemporary capitalism.
